Will Mr. Jones Hold The Office if Elected

We have said that Mr. Jones did not need the office and that he was likely running in the interest of some other person. Mr. Jones and myself made a speech to the voters in the Court House at Barbourville on last Monday. In attempting to answer this charge Mr. Jones said: "If I do not stay in the office, I'll have a man there in my place".

He did not deny the charge or say he would stay in the office. I think that Mr. Jones, if elected, expects to pay some person a small sum to stay in the office and he will follow his other business. Don't you think it would be better to elect me. Because if I am elected I expect to stay in the office and give it the same careful attention I have in the past.

Mr. S. H. Jones Ought to be Fair

Mr. Jones has been circulating in the County, a report that I help to select the men who serve on the juries in the Knox Circuit Court. Mr. Jones is very ignorant in making this claim or he wants to misrepresent the facts. The Circuit Judge once each year selects three jury commissioners. These jury commissioners take the assessor's books and select something like three hundred names, and write these names on a little slip of paper, and places them inside of a little tin tube. They are then placed into the Jury Wheel. The Clerk nor any other person is present when these Jury Commissioners do their work. The Clerk has nothing on earth to do with it. After the Jury Commissioners have completed their work, they lock the Jury Wheel and turn the key over to Judge Sampson, and Judge Sampson carries the key to the Jury Wheel, and this Jury Wheel is not opened by anyone except the Circuit Judge. When the Circuit Judge desires to draw a new jury, he takes his key and opens the Jury Wheel, in open Court, in the presence of who ever may be in Court and takes out one at a time, these little tin tubes with the name of prospective juror in it, and calls the name on the paper in the presence of the Clerk in open Court, and the Clerk writes it down. The Judge continues this process until he has drawn all of the names required for the Jury at that time. The Clerk has nothing on earth to do with this except to write down on the record the names of the jurors as called out by the Circuit Judge. The Clerk has nothing on earth to do with the selecting of the Jury, and cannot put any man on the Jury nor take any man off. Mr. Jones must think the people of Knox County are fools to swallow a tale like this.

I am trying to make my race in a fair, clean and honest way, and I do trust that Mr. Jones will stick to the truth. I expect to win this office on the ground that I am qualified to make a good officer and that I have performed my duties in an honest and faithful manner. I do not know to what length Mr. Jones may go in making false statements about me. My records are open for inspection, and I invite every voter to inspect them and say whether or not I have performed my duties in an honest and faithful manner.

Respectfully,
W. H. McDONALD

Mr. S. H. Jones Exposed

Mr. S. H. Jones has made light of the fact that I was a member of the Red Men's Lodge and some other lodges. Mr. Jones has not told us that when he was a candidate in the Republican Primary for Sheriff, that he joined the Red Men's Lodge, and on the day he went into office as Sheriff, he was suspended from this lodge for the non-payment of dues, and as every Red Man knows he has not been a member of that order since that date (July 1st, 1910). Now, Mr. Jones, did you join the lodge in order to ride into office? You have told the people that your lodge disbanded. Your lodge was consolidated with the Red Men's Lodge of Barbourville, and your membership was with the Red Men's Lodge of Barbourville at the time you were suspended for the non-payment of dues as the records of the Lodge show. These records also show that you have not paid any dues and have never been reinstated, and I have in my possession a certified record from J. M. Wilson, the Secretary of the Lodge at Barbourville, showing that you were suspended on January 1, 1910 and have not been a member since that time. Yet, a Brother Red Man came to me the other day and told me that you had been in his neighborhood where there are a great many Red Men, and claimed to them that you were a member of the order and that the Red Men ought to stand by you. You want to ride into office with the aid of the Red Men (when you are not a member) but are too close fisted to pay the dues and hold your membership in the order. I do not think, that with this record that Mr. Jones can abuse anybody about his connection with the lodges. Do you Mr. Voter? The statements that I make here can be verified by the records.

Respectfully,
W. H. McDONALD

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

mined to do this come what may, and no matter what the trouble or cost may be. And we invite you to do the same.

16. You say this can be done even before the present war ends; and so it can: WE are certainly going to insist on it, and we hope you fellows that are now fighting each other will effectuate this and we are willing to help you "get together" and agree on this subject.

17. We think so much of the friendship of the German people and nation, that we caution them very solemnly to regard our rights in this critical matter, and therefore we tell you, in all kindness, that if you "do it again" you had better "look out".

Yours truly,
Samuel.

To the Republicans of Kentucky

Owingsville, Ky., July 15 1915.
I am a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals to be voted for in the primary of Saturday, August 7th.

This office is, and ought to be, as far removed from partisan politics as is possible, and calls only for non-partisan discharge of clerical duties.

I have been consistent and active in support of the Republican party, its principles and candidates for forty years, taking just pride in its preservation of the union, its advocacy of civil service, sound money, and a tariff for the protection of American industry, reserving and always exercising the right to criticize its men and measures when it seemed to me proper to do so and according to every man the same right I claim for myself, to talk and vote as the intelligence and conscience dictate.

But what has all this to do with the duties to be performed by a clerk of the Court of Appeals?

My life to this time, has been lived among the people of this State, and if inquiry reveals that I have in any way failed to be a fairly good official in the places where tried or that I have failed to be a fairly decent citizen, then it is your right and your duty to vote against me. Showing otherwise, I will thank you to go to the polls and vote for me, and, so far as you can, have others to do so.

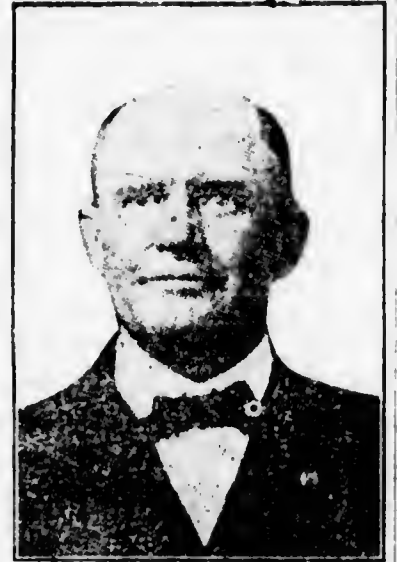

If every man that I have helped and tried to help in the game of politics will do the same for me this nomination will come easily.

Respectfully,
James Lawrence McCoy

TOM RHEA HAS PROVEN FRIEND TO TAXPAYERS OF KENTUCKY

Played Important Part In Forcing Large Corporations to Pay Their Just Proportion of Taxes and is Best Qualified In Every Way for Auditorship

It is natural and proper that the Democrats of Kentucky should take a deep interest in the selection of their candidate for Governor on August 7, but they should not allow that race to overshadow all others and cause them to neglect or overlook other important races. Especially should they give their attention to the Auditor's race, for that position ranks in importance next to that of Governor.

The Auditor is the head of the fiscal affairs of the state and the head of this important Board of Finance Assessments which fixes the franchise valuations upon which all corporations doing business in the state must pay taxes. The work of that board is of far-reaching importance to the people, and, above all others, the Auditor, who presides as chairman of the board, should be a man well equipped and trained for his difficult duties, and one who is incorruptible and fearless, ready to compel the corporations to pay their just part of the revenues of the state, without being subject to any corporation or persons.

Such a man is Thos. S. Rhea, who is asking the nomination from the Democratic party, and there is not a man in Kentucky better qualified for the position or more deserving of the support of the Democrats. As State Treasurer for nearly four years in the present administration, he has been a member of that board and a leading spirit in its splendid work. With his intelligence and active assistance, the franchise assessments upon corporations have been so increased that the state is now receiving several hundred thousand dollars more in revenue every year than ever before. The board has increased the franchise valuation upon all corporations from $18,000,000 to $132,000,000. Four of the largest railroad companies, whose assessments were raised, have carried it into the courts; and, if the courts uphold the action of the board, the increased revenue, together with the large increase from other corporations, which have not contested the raises, will be a great help to the taxpayers, and in a reasonable time will materially in paying off the indebtedness of the state.

In the four years of this administration, the increase of revenues from the increased assessments of those corporations, which have not made contests, will alone amount to a sum to the state far in excess of a million dollars; and the increase of revenues from the same source to the counties, cities, towns and school districts will amount to about two million dollars for the same period. Should the courts uphold the action of the board in regard to the four railroad companies, it would add about one million dollars more to the state, and about two million dollars more to the counties, cities, towns and school districts in the same four years.

No man has had more to do with this great work than Tom Rhea, and no man now seeking a nomination for a state office is better prepared than he to render useful and valuable service to the state and to the people in the next four years. No other man seeking this office has ever had the slightest experience with its duties. Some of his enemies, at the beginning of this campaign, undertook to criticize him and his record as an official, but they had to quickly abandon such attacks, because the published facts clearly disproved their misrepresentations. In the next administration, Mr. Rhea would prove himself a tower of strength to the state in the conduct of its revenues and fiscal affairs.

As a Democrat and party worker, there is not a blot upon his record. Four years ago, when he was on the state ticket as the nominee for Treasurer, he added great strength to the ticket, as was shown by the increased majority of 2,500 given in his judicial district alone. Last fall, in the Senatorial and Congressional races, he was chosen by the Democratic State Committee as Campaign Chairman, and under his intelligent and successful management and organization, the Democratic majority in the state was increased to 32,000.

Tom Rhea has always been true to the party and its nominees. He has never bolted nor walked when things did not go his way in primaries or conventions. The Democratic party in the campaign this fall needs him upon the ticket. No other man can give it greater strength or do more to insure its success in the November election. He is a man of pleasing and attractive personality, free from malice, kind, considerate to all, a temperate and a temperance man, never having touched a drink of alcoholic liquor in all his life, and, all in all, he is a man worthy in the highest degree of the confidence and support of all good citizens.

The Democrats of the state could not find a better man to nominate for any office than Tom Rhea, and, if the signs indicate anything, he will be the nominee for Auditor by a handsome majority in the primary on August 7.

CANDIDATES ARE WARNED Money and Whiskey Must Not be Used

Let me again call attention of all candidates and their friends to the law denouncing the crime of vote buying and vote selling, and the use of intoxicating liquors to influence voters in elections. The same law applies to both primary and general elections, and is broad enough to cover all phases of wrong doings in elections. On August 7th, we will have a primary election for the nomination of candidates of all political parties. No candidate or other person, can use, either for himself or another, direct, or indirectly, money or other things of value, whiskey or other intoxicants, to influence a vote in the coming primary, without violating the law, and subjecting himself to a heavy fine or imprisonment or both, and the far greater penalty of being forever after disqualified from holding office, and be excluded from voting in any election. These penalties are severe, but one who willfully violates these statutes can claim no sympathy and will receive none, when indicted and arraigned upon the charge.

In order that no person may be taken advantage of and that all may know in advance the purpose of the Court to have a thorough investigation of the election, at each voting precinct in Knox, Whitley and McCreary, I am issuing this statement. Let no man be deceived. No guilty person, no matter how influential, or powerful in politics, or otherwise, will be able to escape indictment, and prosecution, if he violates the election law. A special Grand Jury will be empaneled, in each of the aforesaid counties, and vigorously instructed to probe the whole election by precinct, and the doings of each candidate and his workers. No person will be accepted as a member of the grand jury who has taken active part in the election.

A. R. DYCHE

"The Pioneer Republican"

of London, Ky., solicits your support in his race for

State Senator

In the Seventeenth District,
Composed of McCreary, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Jackson,
Laurel, Whitley, Knox and Bell Counties.

Republican Primary, Saturday, Aug. 7, 1915.

He has done longer and more valiant service for his party than all his opponents. In his public works he has unflinchingly championed the cause of the Mountains and is best fitted for the office he seeks. He favors the submission to a vote of the people the question of state wide prohibition. He will support all acts and measures that will benefit his district, and be ever on the job.

except to vote. Only good, strong, true, sober, discreet citizens, who believe in the enforcement of the election law, will be able to qualify, and that, too, after they declare their willingness to undertake the work with vigor and a full determination to bring to justice all who have violated the election law.

All election officers, including challengers and inspectors, at each precinct in all three counties, will be summoned and required to appear before the grand jury and testify. All candidates and their "workers" from all parts of these counties will be likewise summoned and no one will be excused. The bankers will be called to give information concerning money used, and the express and freight agents to tell of the shipment of whiskey.

All good citizens of each county should organize; sound the warning, and have detectives at each voting place to take names and furnish information, to the prosecutors, and then all stand together, for the enforcement of the law, so that in the future the ballot shall be free and untrammelled.

The practice of hiring men to ride through the country and electioneer for a candidate is both improper and unlawful. It is an imposition on the voters, and the money thus expended is generally intended to and does bribe and influence the man thus employed. The man who has to be hired to electioneer for a candidate is himself bribed when he accepts such employment. The electorate must not be imposed upon by these hired agents and "strickers", because they are emissaries, carrying falsehood and slander for pay. Such a man is no better than he who sells his vote outright. He is attempting to sell his influence and his friends both for money. He is betraying his friends, if he has any, and selling himself all for one price. The grand jury will be directed to seek out such bribe takers and indict them along with those who sell at the polls.

In order that all offenders shall be prosecuted alike, and that no one may expect immunity, a special Commonwealth's Attorney will be appointed in each county for election cases. In the selection of this officer, care will be exercised to secure the most fearless and aggressive prosecutor at the bar, and he will have charge, both in the grand jury room and in the trial of such cases as arise upon indictment.

This can and will be a clean primary, if the good people of the district will but demand it, and stand for law enforcement. The last few elections have shown wonderful improvements over the old corrupt methods, when men were drunk and disorderly, and buying and selling was open and passed unpunished. But we now have more advantages and light, and should act accordingly. An election should be an orderly and sane affair, free from bribery and above common drunkenness. And this will come, as it is sure to come, through the law abiding citizenship, aided by the Courts.
F. D. Sampson, Judge
34th Judicial District.

NOMINATE ROY WILHOIT FOR AUDITOR AND UNITE THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN LOUISVILLE

Exceptionally Well Qualified Because of Training and Experience HAS CLEAN AND BRILLIANT RECORD

LEADING BUSINESS MEN AND LAWYERS OF LOUISVILLE ASK FOR THE NOMINATION OF ROY WILHOIT FOR STATE AUDITOR. WEALTHIEST AND MOST INFLUENTIAL REPUBLICANS OF THE METROPOLIS ENDORSE HIM.

Louisville, Ky., July 9, 1915.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF KENTUCKY:

We believe that the peculiar conditions existing in Louisville and Jefferson county, comprising the Fifth Congressional District of Kentucky, warrant our calling to your attention the importance of a careful consideration of the nomination of candidates upon the Republican State ticket to be voted for in the November election.

The results of the election in Louisville in November will, no doubt, bear largely, and perhaps decisively, upon the general result in the State. We believe we shall poll here the largest Republican vote in the history of the city, under favorable conditions. However, not over twenty-five per cent of the vote which we expect to receive at the general election can participate in the Primary Election on August 7th, due to the operation of a Democratic Election law. Therefore, the Republicans throughout the State who are desirous of seeing a united party in the City of Louisville should see that we have representation upon the State ticket. To do that it is important that they cast their votes for a candidate who would be the proper representation upon the State ticket, and one who can bring about a united party in this city and district in November.

We urge the nomination of Roy Wilhoit for State Auditor, and earnestly request the Republican voters of the State to support him in the Primary on August 7th. He is the choice of those voters upon whom we must rely to carry us to victory this year; and is our choice—and we might add is the unanimous choice of the Republican party in the City of Louisville and the Fifth District. We heartily unite in endorsing his candidacy.

McCHESNEY THE MAN FOR VICTORY IN NOVEMBER

Temperance Vote in Country Districts and Mountains Will More Than Make Up For Liquor Men Who May Bolt—Elections of Last Few Years Prove This

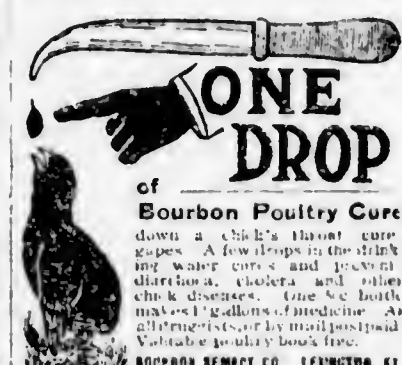

The liquor candidates and the liquor organs in their desperate efforts to elect the rapidly increasing strength of Mr. McChesney, and to prevent, if possible, what seems to be his probable nomination as the Democratic candidate for Governor in the August primary, have been industriously circulating the report that if he is nominated he can not be elected in November. They base this statement upon the idea that the whiskey and beer Democrats would not vote for him, or for any other dry Democrat, if he is nominated. In other words, they admit that, although the liquor Democrats will take a very active part in the primary against McChesney, they will not hesitate, if he is nominated, to bolt his nomination and vote for the Republican ticket. There is some truth in that threat, for that is just what they have been doing for many years. Most of them do not seem to be bound, by any sense of honor or obligation, to support the nominee after they have taken part in the primary. Admitting to be true their purpose to bolt if Mr. McChesney is nominated, and that is what this talk amounts to when they say he could not be elected, let us see whether or not it is to be feared.

The people of Kentucky remember very well that in the Senatorial primary last year, the same kind of talk and threats were used against Governor Beckham. Mr. Stanley, the liquor candidate for the Senate then, as he is the liquor candidate for Governor now, used the same argument; so did the same liquor newspapers. What this argument amounted to in fact was that, if Beckham was nominated, the whiskey and beer Democrats would bolt him, while if Stanley should be nominated he would get all of those votes and also the votes of the temperance Democrats, who would be too honorable and too good Democrats, to bolt the party nominee after they had taken part in the primary. The result of that primary should be fresh in the memory of Kentucky Democrats. With all the power and wealth of the distilleries, the breweries, and the saloons back of him, Stanley was defeated by a substantial majority. Beckham was nominated and a large majority of the liquor Democrats did bolt him in the November election. It is necessary only to look at the returns from that election to demonstrate it.

In all of the cities and liquor centers Beckham ran considerably behind the rest of the Democratic ticket. Even in Louisville, which he carried by a large majority, he ran nearly 2,500 votes behind the majority of the Democratic nominee for Congress; in Kentucky county (city of Covington) he received 1,889 votes less than the vote for the Democratic nominee for Congress; in Campbell county (city of Newport) he received 1,632 less; in Fayette county (city of Lexington) which he should have carried by 1,200, he carried by only 197; and so it was in every city where there was a liquor vote. Even in Henderson county, Mr. Stanley's home, Governor Beckham ran about 200 or 250 votes behind the ticket, even though Stanley made a speech there before the election, ostensibly for the ticket, but it happened that in the five or six places where he did speak in that campaign, Beckham, the nominee, lost votes, for Stanley's speeches were not intended to help him. Notwithstanding all of this defection and bolting, Governor Beckham won over his Republican opponent, Governor Willson, by 32,000 majority, the largest majority given to any Democratic candidate in 25 or 30 years. So the threat of Mr. Stanley and his whiskey and beer supporters proved to be futile and empty.

It is the same old trick they are trying to work again on the Democrats this year. But it will fool only the nothinking or the ignorant. Mr. McChesney is undoubtedly the strongest candidate the Democrats can nominate for Governor. He will be elected beyond doubt; he may lose many very wet Democrats in the liquor centers, just as Beckham did last year, but he will more than make it up in the country districts and in the mountains. He is receiving the assurances of thousands of temperance Republicans and independents that they will support him, if he is nominated over Mr. Morrow, who is well known as a wet man. It is no use for Mr. Stanley to argue that, because the Republicans will nominate a wet candidate for Governor on a wet platform, the Democrats should do the same thing, and get into a race with the Republican ticket to see which can bid the highest for the whiskey and beer votes of the state. The people of Kentucky are not going to elect as Governor of the state a liquor trust man, and Mr. Stanley might as well stand aside. The people know that their chance to beat the wet Republican candidate is with Mr. McChesney as the Democratic candidate. He will be nominated and elected.

LOUISVILLE MOOSERS AND REPUBLICANS UNITE ON ROY WILHOIT FOR STATE AUDITOR.

More Than Five Thousand Progressives and Independents Sign Petition Urging His Nomination.

ROY WILHOIT.

PETITION WHICH 5,100 PROGRESSIVES AND INDEPENDENTS OF LOUISVILLE AND JEFFERSON COUNTY HAVE SIGNED, URGING KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS TO NOMINATE ROY WILHOIT FOR STATE AUDITOR.

To the Republicans of Kentucky:

We, the undersigned Progressives and Independent voters of Louisville and Jefferson county, Kentucky, desiring to see Democracy ousted both in the State and Nation, and believing that the prospects are bright for both, and realizing that such can be brought about only through union and harmony, request that in the selection of nominees for the various State offices in the coming State primary in August, 1915, you nominate men whom we can heartily support in the general election in November.

Realizing that it would be impractical to have a Progressive or an Independent as one of your nominees, we wish to state to you that the nomination of HON. ROY WILHOIT, of this city, for STATE AUDITOR, would be highly pleasing to us, as we have carefully watched his political course during the past few years, and during his race for Congress in this district last year he made direct appeals to the rank and file of the Progressive party and the Independent vote which attracted favorable attention from us, and won for him our admiration. He is young, aggressive, courageous, honest and capable, and we believe his nomination would unite the Republican party in the Fifth district, and we urge the Republicans of Kentucky to stand for his nomination.

We the undersigned, Hugh H. Ellis and J. T. Rennison, Progressives of the city of Louisville, and B. T. Harsh, Republican, certify that we have examined the names signed to the above petition, and find the number of signatures to be as above stated.

Signed:

HUGH H. ELLIS,
J. T. RENNISON,
B. T. HARSH.

Mr. Wilhoit is able and capable, a vigorous campaign speaker and a good fighter. He will contribute much service and add strength by his effective campaigning all over the state. The Republicans have never carried Kentucky when they lost Louisville. It is the largest District in the State and in all fairness is entitled to a candidate on the Republican ticket, aside from its effect on the general movement.

Both of Mr. Wilhoit's opponents are from the Eastern part of the State from which section it is now certain that a majority of the ticket will be selected, one of them being from Franklin county, which county already has the Republican nominee for Attorney General. To refuse the Fifth District a single candidate and at the same time give to one small Democratic county two candidates for the most important offices would certainly be not only unfair but extremely unwise.

WHAT FORMER GOVERNOR WILLSON THINKS OF THE CANDIDACY OF ROY WILHOIT.

To the Republicans of Kentucky:

I believe that Mr. Roy Wilhoit, if nominated for State Auditor, will gain for the Republican ticket more votes in Louisville and Jefferson county than any other candidate to be voted for at the election. I believe he is the choice of those voters in Louisville and Jefferson county whose support will give us the best chance for victory this year and I hope he will be nominated.

(Signed) AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON.
